March/April 2018

Dear Readers

I trust you all had a happy and safe Easter. I took a trip down south to catch up with my family and take a break from the heat.

It was a very busy week leading up to the Easter break, starting off with road inspections with the Councillors. We left on Saturday 24th March and travelled up to Mt Augustus which was to be our base for the next few days. We carried out the inspections of the roads in the Eastern side of our shire observing the damage caused by the recent rains. Over this time we inspected over 200 kilometres of shire gravel roads. With the council meeting scheduled for the Wednesday we held it at Mt Augustus Station. We had three meetings in total for the day, Audit Meeting, Biosecurity Meeting as well as the Ordinary Council Meeting. A big thanks to Don Hammarquist for providing the venue and to Cathy for the catering.

The shire's contract accountant Sue Voloczi has advised that she will not be renewing her contract with the shire as she plans to retire come end of June. The shire will now need to tender for a new accounting and financial contractor.

I have had a detailed discussion with our EH/BS regarding the establishment of a 'Public Pool' utilising the existing pool situated at the Tourist Precinct. I have provided a copy of Darkan's methodology and hope to replicate this to suit our requirements and gain approval from the Health Department. I am targeting having this sorted and operation for next summer.

I have been advised by WALGA that the City of Perth are once again running the 'Banners in the Terrace' competition, the school has indicated that they would like to design and construct a banner, accordingly I have registered them and they will go through the necessary stages.<sup>2</sup>

Council News

On the 20th March the shire took possession of a new 140M Caterpillar Grader. The old grader was purchased by Smith and Broughton whom transported it back to Perth.

The council has decided to donate the shire's old Steiger Tractor to the Carnarvon Speedway Club. The Steiger was purchased in 2013 for $5000, and it has exceeded its projected operational life by a number of years.

The ANZAC Day Service will be held outside the Council Office, due to the new cenotaph not being ready for this year's ceremony. After the service the Junction Pub & Tourist Park will be putting on a BBQ lunch and meat raffles. I hope to see you all there.

Chief Executive Officer

PRINCIPAL'S POST

It has been very busy at the school since the last school newsletter:

- Two students have achieved 100% attendance up to week 8 of this term.
  - 75% of students are meeting the Department attendance target of 90%!
  - The Ketawa (Indonesian) classes are up and running despite the frustration with internet speed, lock outs and computers generally being computers.
  - Students can greet people in Indonesian.
  - Staff can greet people in Indonesian.
  - The weather readings are being done consistently with students accompanying Mrs Walker to the weather station.
  - Term 1 testing, upon which we gauge student progress from year to year is complete.
  - 0 red slips have been given
  - 5 orange slips have been given. That is about 1 a week and
  - an average of 125 positive behaviour instances have been recorded (that is about 5 positives a day).
- As a result,
- All students attended the Swim camp in Carnarvon.

And still the events keep coming!!

Over the next few weeks students are to be involved in :

- designing a banner for the Shire of Upper Gascoyne to be flown at the Banners on the Terrace display in Perth.
- preparing an Indonesian assembly item for parents. The Ketawa assembly (meaning laughter in Indonesian) is scheduled for Friday 12th April at 10:30am.

Come along with us for the ride and an exciting end to term. As always please contact me with any queries or concerns. Enjoy your Easter break.

Best wishes,

Swim camp 2018

The Swim Camp provided staff with a unique opportunity to observe each child in a variety of contexts. It allowed a privileged glimpse into how each child may think, create, problem solve, deal with challenges and frustrations and to manage themselves in an adult world.

This arms us with more understanding and the opportunity to develop and encourage the best for each student within the day to day programming at the school.

We were proud of the way your children conducted themselves over the five days. They were extremely busy, tired and hot but despite this for the most part they were well mannered, inquisitive, question-ing, and cooperative.

Congratulations to all students on the achievements of earning swimming certificates as well as working as a team across different contexts.

Thank you to the volunteers from the OTC, The Carnarvon Heritage Foundation and Westut Plantation for sharing their passion and expertise with the students.

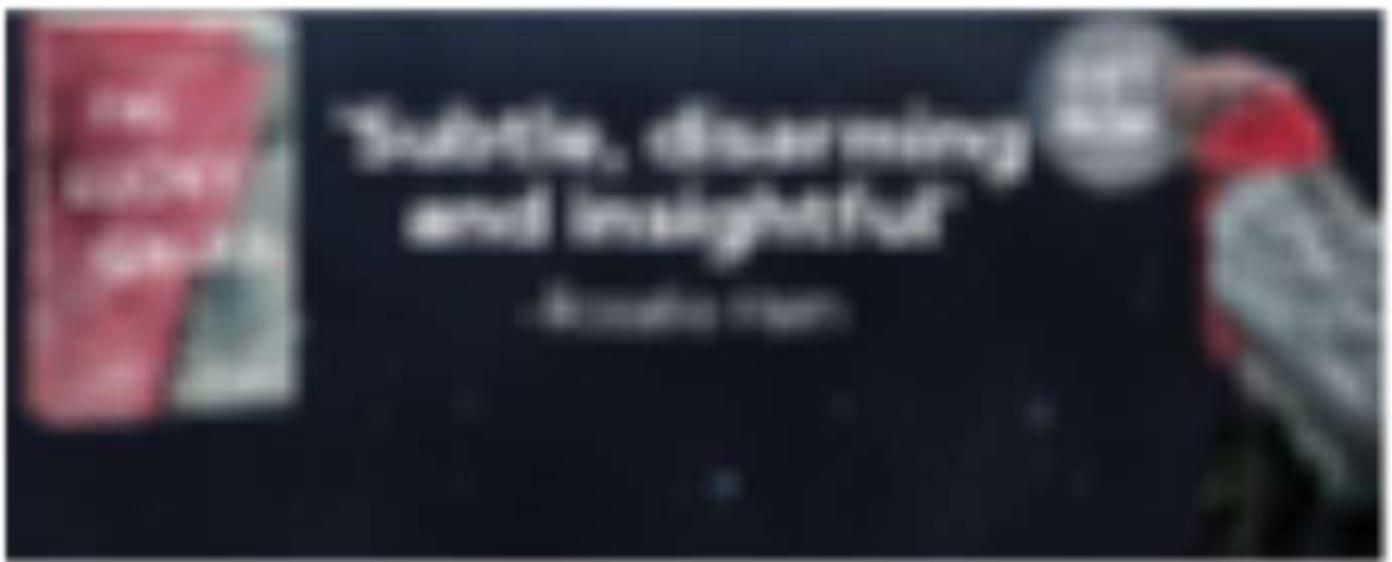

Also to staff and swim instructors from Carnarvon Aquatic Centre, staff from Carnarvon Community College, PCYC, Helping Minds, Winter sun Caravan Park and Sunset Café for their care and assistance.

Thank you to Parents and Carers for trusting us with the care of your child/children.

And thank you to our own dedicated staff - Blanche Walker, Karen Coffin, Jodie Gibson and Peter Polakiewicz for providing positive role models and excellent support to each and every child.

NEXT STOP.....PERTH! Stay tuned.

WA local rockmelon safe to eat

10 April 2018

Carnarvon rockmelons are safe to eat. The tasty, healthy WA fruit will under-go additional testing to ensure consumer safety after rockmelons grown in the Eastern States were tragically infected with Listeria.

Nationals WA Member for North West Central Vince Catania visited Carnarvon rockmelon growers to discuss the impact that the perception that WA produce is also tainted has had on this growing season.

Mr Catania said “Rockmelons grown here in Carnarvon are the best in Australia and are recognised nationally and internationally as a safe and delicious fruit that people can rely on for freshness every time they buy one.”

“The public perception that all rockmelons are anything other than safe to eat couldn’t be further from the truth.”

“All of the affected rockmelons were from one grower in NSW and all of the remaining produce has been destroyed with none of the rockmelons produced there having come to WA.”

A recent outbreak of Listeria in rockmelons from one grower in Nericon NSW has led to the widespread fear in consumers that all rockmelons are unsafe to eat.

Carnarvon rockmelon growers Anthony and Graham Kuzmicich said “We have been working closely with Coles and Woolworths to implement additional measures that guarantees our melons are fit for consumption and are of the highest quality and freshness.”

“We need WA consumers to support WA growers,” Mr Kuzmicich said.

Mr Catania said “West Australian consumers expect that the best fruits, vegetables and herbs are grown in Carnarvon and the Gascoyne region and they can shop with confidence knowing that that is still the case.”

“These voluntarily safeguards put in place by Carnarvon growers ensure that consumers can continue to buy the best rockmelons in Australia with the full confidence that the only thing they can expect is delicious flavour and a full stomach.”

Midwest cancer patients will be at home with new hostel

The Midwest Cancer Hostel will provide rural communities with access to the health services they need, as close to home as possible, when it opens its doors later this year.

WA Country Health Service's Acting Regional Director Midwest, Karen Street, said the hostel was an important development for the region, which will enable people to live as part of their community while also receiving the support and treatment they require.

"A cancer journey can be long and arduous; more an uphill trek than an actual journey.

The new Midwest Cancer Hostel is under construction.

"Providing health services as close to home as possible is an important step in the health and wellbeing of our rural communities and the hostel is closely located behind the recently completed Midwest Cancer Centre to ensure patients are near to their treatment facilities.

"With seven double rooms, the accommodation is great news for not only the people receiving treatment, but their carers too," said Karen.

Careful consideration has gone into the design of the new hostel which will provide a welcoming, non-clinical, safe, secure and culturally appropriate facility for patients traveling to the Midwest for their cancer treatment.

"The brief was simple – to create a home away from home and I think we have achieved that."

Senior architect Nick Silich, SPH Architecture and Interiors, is pleased with the progress of the hostel, which will allow patients to be treated and cared for in modern, state-of-the-art facilities close to their families and loved ones.

"At the heart of the design is the focus on patient recovery and wellbeing," said Nick.

"Meandering paths, thoughtful landscaping and entry from the rear of the units through the outdoor areas all help to provide a layered transition between the public and private spaces."

Raked ceilings in all the rooms will also provide patients with a sense of openness and light.

The $1.38 million Midwest Cancer Hostel is being constructed by the WA Country Health Service on behalf of the Australian Government's Health and Hospitals Fund (HHF).

It is expected to be completed mid-year and will be a welcome addition to those who need a 'home away from home.'

The Midwest Cancer Hostel is being delivered as part of a $5.48 million commitment in Geraldton which has already seen the construction of a six chair, one bed chemotherapy unit completed in 2016.

Both projects are part of the Strengthening Cancer Services in Regional Western Australia initiative; a $22.9 million commitment by the Australian Government which will see 10 projects delivered by WACHS across the State.
